

Consent for SPOT 2021 participation

This consent page pertains to speakers and participants in the upcoming SPOT 2021 Virtual Meeting.

PRESENTATIONS

- The speaker authorizes the 40th Annual Meeting of SPOT to record the presentation.
- If a speaker does not give his/her consent to record his/her presentation, it will not be possible for him/her to give the talk during the 40th Annual Meeting of SPOT.
- RXF on behalf of SPOT is allowed to host and archive SPOT's conference videos.
- RXF will make the recording available only for registered attendees on the SPOT 2021 virtual platform (during six months) with the same credentials used during the Virtual Meeting. Presentations will only be available on streaming option basis.

LIABILITY & COPYRIGHT

- If this presentation is based upon work that has been sponsored or supported by any agency or organization, the speaker is responsible that he/she has fulfilled any right of review or other obligation required by contract or agreement with the supporting entity (disclosures).
- The speaker is further responsible that the presentation does not, to the best of his/her knowledge, infringe upon any third-party's copyright.
- RXF and SPOT are not responsible for and do not hold the copyrights to speaker presentations. RXF and SPOT are not liable for any damages resulting from the opinions and ideas communicated during the conference among participants, including but not limited to speakers and attendees.
- RXF and SPOT are not liable for any conference participant presentations, comments, or remarks that might reasonably offend anyone.
- Neither RXF nor SPOT can be held responsible in the event that the presenter encounters difficulties with regard to the broadcasting of his/her presentation on the platform for any reason (bad internet connection, defective audio materials, etc) - No compensation or reimbursement can be requested in this case.

CODE OF CONDUCT

As the congress is moving virtual, it is important to remember that a code of conduct still applies. It can be tempting to hide behind the anonymity of virtual platforms. We expect our community to behave in the same manner as it would at our in-person events, and to respect codes of conduct. Any online harassment, of any kind, will not be tolerated; we will take swift action to remove you from our virtual platforms and events should you act in a way that contravenes the spirit of our code.

VIRTUAL EXPERIENCE POLICY

- You may not reproduce or record any written materials, the virtual meetings or video, if any, provided the speaker(s) during the Event in their entirety and distribute them in any form.
- You may not use the name, likeness, or any speaker's biographical information, including but not limited to, their name, trademark and logo in connection with the Congress.
- You may not create audio or video recordings of the Event presentation, in its entirety or any portion of the Event presentation, given by speaker(s) during the Event, and may not simultaneously broadcast or live-stream the Presentation Recordings, or post the Presentation Recordings on any website.
